William Soulsby, 2017-11-17 I always loved to hunt, and the title to my book came from my wife. When hunting season came around every year, I would simply put a sign in the window of the office: Gone Hunting, with a date on which I would be back in the office. My wife said that all of our patients knew that I loved to hunt and would be closed during hunting season every year. One year at Christmas, my wife gave me a placard that read "Born To Hunt Forced to Work." So that became the title that I used for the book. All the stories in the book are completely true, and I hope you find pleasure and some laughter in reading it.

Local author Steve Gardiner examines these powerful natural disasters and their ramifications on the people of Southeast Minnesota.
